The Remembrance Day poppy symbolizes Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future, representing the fallen soldiers and the support for the armed forces community.

It became a symbol after World War I because wild red poppies grew profusely on the disturbed earth of battlefields in Flanders, an idea popularized by Canadian surgeon John McCrae's poem "In Flanders Fields". Millions wear the poppy to commemorate sacrifice and show support for current and former service members and their families.

In Flanders Fields

By John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Service of Remembrance

Sunday 9 November 2025

Knottingley War Memorial

10.45 am

Please join us in our Act of Remembrance to commemorate the contribution of British and Commonwealth military and civilian servicemen and women in the two World Wars and later conflicts.

Heritage Day

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the success of our Heritage Day. Thank you to Knottingley Art Club for their display. There was also a display showing the various stages of the clock restoration and also one on the various different types of architecture that can be seen around Knottingley.

Thank you to Linda who provided refreshments in the Parish Room and Glenis for running a stall. Also, a big thank you to all who baked to provide refreshments both for this and the following Dedication Service.

Dedication of the Clock & Windows

On the 13th September we had a lovely service of the rededication of St Botolph's Clock and the beautiful windows in our church.

Mother Sharon & Fr Philip conducted the service; there were 2 readings and the dedication of our Clock & Windows.

Terry, our Clock man, did a talk on the work carried out on the clock. He has done a marvellous job; we presented him with a photo of a clock. A gentleman was taking photos of the church windows and was over whelmed with the work on the clock, he made a copy for Terry who was very pleased with the photo.

Womersley Hand Bell Ringers played 3 tunes. They did well, considering they were short of 4 ringers and their music director; well done.

At the end of the service the tower bells rang out. Thank you to all the ringers the service was beautiful. There were refreshments afterwards in the Parish Room. Thank you to all who made this a successful event.

Looking through my albums and scrap books I found these lovely pieces that I would like to share with you all.

Peter Greenwood.

Look for me when the tide is high
And the gulls are wheeling overhead
When the autumn wind sweeps the cloudy sky
And one by one the leaves are shed
Look for me when the trees are bare
And the stars are bright in the frosty sky
When the morning mist hangs on the air
And shorter darker days pass by.
I am there, where the river flows
And salmon leap to a silver moon
Where the insects hum and the tall grass grows
And sunlight warms the afternoon
I am there in the busy street
I take your hand in the city square
In the market place where the people meet
In your quiet room – I am there
I am the love you cannot see
And all I ask is .. look for me.

Friends of St Botolph's

The group has had a successful summer with our ladies. We have been out every month in the nice weather. We enjoyed some delicious lunches at Birkin Tea Room next to the lake in July, the Fig & Olive in August and Crown Garden centre in September.

The group has started knitting for Martin House Hospice for Children, Ann the who sells the knitting is doing a sale in November; our knitting will be going to the Leeds sale.

Thank you to Mrs Middleton once again for the knitting and also all the ladies who knit in the group.

Our Christmas lunch will be the first week in December and we going to Kellington Manor. If you would like to join us please contact Linda.

Our next event will be the Christmas Fayre first Saturday in December look forward to seeing everyone there.

St Botolph's Parish Giving Scheme

As reported in last month's magazine, the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS) was launched for St Botolph's in June 2020.

The Parish Giving Scheme (PGS) is an established service for managing Direct Debit donations, designed to support churches to fund their mission and ministry. It reduces the burden of work on church volunteers and provides a simple and secure service to donors.

The service is freely available to all parishes, their churches and donors, within dioceses that have chosen to participate. Uptake is growing every year, with the majority of dioceses in the Church of England - and many of their parishes - now members of PGS and experiencing the benefits.

Further details can be found here: www.parishgiving.org.uk

The PGS makes it possible for donors to:
Donate monthly, quarterly or annually by Direct Debit
Sign up to inflation-linked giving annually
Enhance your gift to your church by having Gift Aid at 25% added to your giving
Give securely and donate anonymously, if you prefer

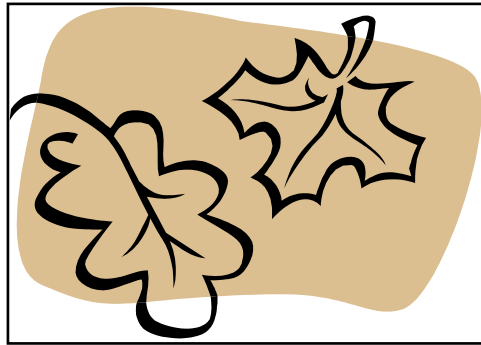

You can set up a Direct Debit to donate regularly to St Botolph's:

via gift form available from Janet Laycock
07790939025 or janet.laycock@yahoo.cpm

or directly via the Parish Giving Scheme on 0333 002 1271

Guides

We had a good start to the new term in September, welcoming some new members.

We began our first meeting by trying some of the, much publicised, new badges. Rainbows did lots of giggling with the Laughter badge, Brownies got active with the Sportsperson badge and Guides thought seriously about friends and how important they can be for the Friendship badge. These badges are all from the Be Well Theme. Some of the girls worked really hard and tried out some of the new badges during the summer holiday, below is a taster of what they did.

Advent

This year Advent begins on Sunday 30 November 2025. It lasts until Christmas Day.

What Does Advent Mean?

Advent means "arrival" and signifies the start of an event or the arrival of a person. In Christian communities around the world, Advent refers to a four-week season of remembering and celebrating the arrival of Jesus on Earth.

Week 1 – we think about all God's people (purple)

Week 2 – we concentrate on the prophets (purple)

Week 3 – we celebrate the life of John the Baptist (pink)

Week 4 - we think about the Virgin Mary (purple)

Another tradition gives the four meanings, or themes, of Advent as hope, peace, joy, and love. These virtues are central to the Christian season of Advent, which prepares for the coming of Christ at Christmas by reflecting on the virtues Jesus brought to the world. Each week of Advent, a candle representing one of these themes is lit to symbolize the deepening presence of Christ as Christmas approaches

Week 1 Hope:

The first theme, symbolizing expectation for the arrival of the Messiah.

Week 2 Peace:

The second virtue, emphasizing comfort and the coming of the Prince of Peace.

Week 3 Joy:

The third theme, celebrating the arrival of Jesus, often symbolized by the angels announcing his birth to the shepherds.

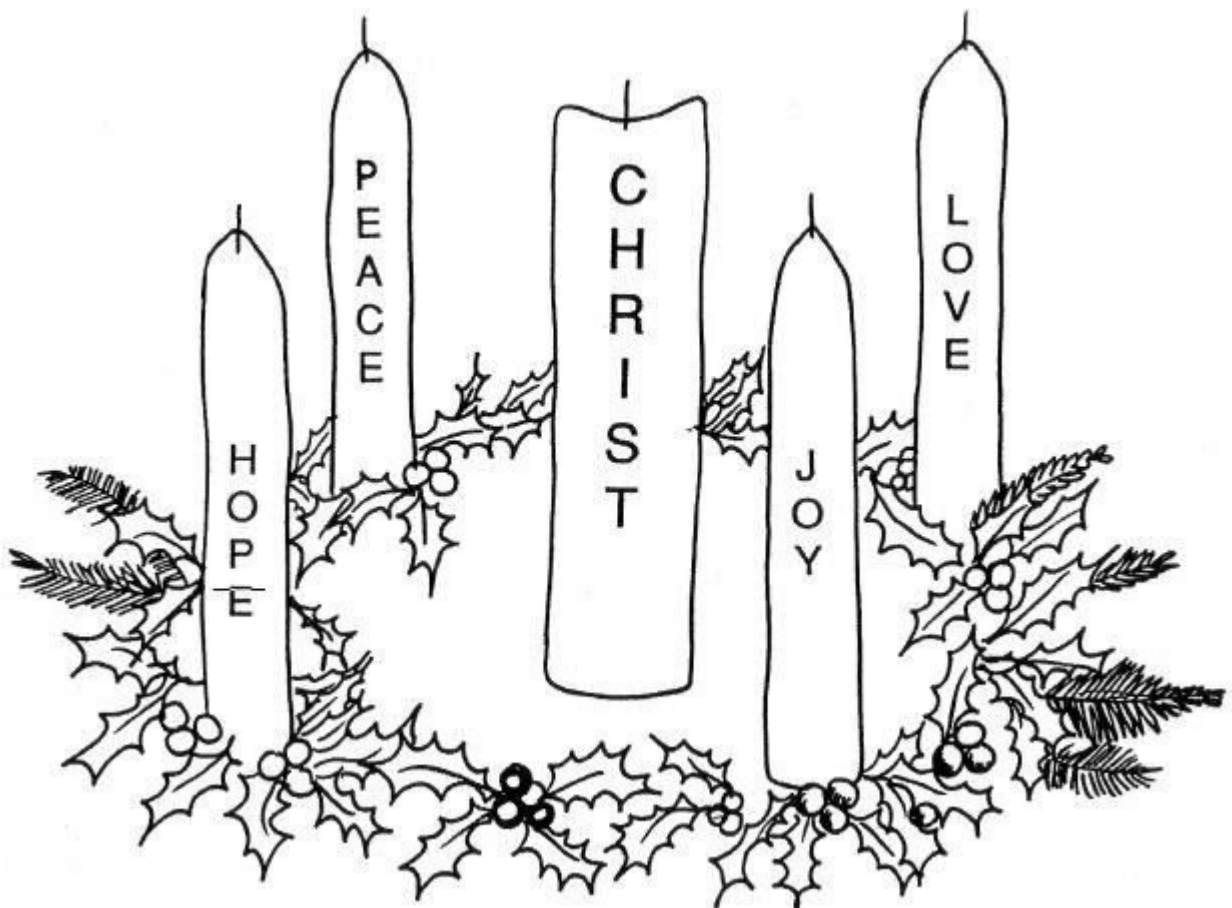

Week 4 Love:

The final virtue, representing God's greatest gift to the world through His Son.

In the context of Advent, the four meanings also relate to the wider concept of "advent" as a coming or arrival. The four-week period before Christmas is known as Advent, and it's a time for Christians to prepare their hearts and minds for the celebration of Christ's Nativity and his expected second coming.

Most Advent Wreaths have a fifth, white candle. This is lit on Christmas Day to celebrate the birth of Christ, the light of the world.

St Andrew, Patron Saint of Scotland

The union flag of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland is sometimes referred to as the Union Jack and is made up of three overlaid crosses. One of these crosses is the flag of the Patron Saint of Scotland, Saint Andrew, although he was not actually born in Scotland.

Andrew's home was the village of Bethsaida on the Sea of Galilee, and like his brother Simon Peter, he was a fisherman.

Andrew, along with Peter, James and John formed the inner circle of Jesus' 12 apostles. Andrew was however a disciple of St. John the Baptist prior to becoming a follower of Christ.

Not a great deal is known about his early life other than he is mentioned in the Bible as taking part in the 'Feeding of the Five Thousand'. It is not absolutely certain where he preached the Gospel, or where he is buried, but Patras in Achia claims to be the place where he was martyred and crucified on a cross.

Whilst it is not certain where Andrew actually preached – Scythia, Thrace and Asia Minor have all been mentioned – it appears he travelled great distances in order to spread the word, and it may be this which links him with Scotland.

Two versions of events claim this link.

One legend builds upon Andrew's extensive travels, claiming that he actually came to Scotland and built a church in Fife. This town is now called St Andrews, and the church became a centre for evangelism, and pilgrims came from all over Britain to pray there. Another ancient legend recalls how it was after the death of Andrew, sometime in the 4th century, that several of his relics were brought to Fife by Rule, a native of Patras.

Whichever legend is closer to the truth we are unlikely to ever unravel, however it is these links that explain why Andrew is now the Patron Saint of Scotland.

Churches were dedicated to him from early times throughout Italy and France as well as in Anglo Saxon England, where Hexham and Rochester were the earliest of 637 medieval dedications.

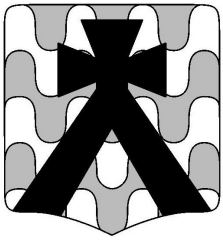

St. Andrew has also been remembered down through the ages for the way he met his terrible death in A.D. 60.

It is said that he believed himself unworthy to be crucified on a cross like that of Christ, and so he met his end on a 'saltire', or X-shaped cross (St Andrew's cross) which became his symbol. His cross, in white on a blue background, remains the proud symbol of Scotland today and forms a central component of the flag of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

The supposed anniversary of his martyrdom is 30 November, and it is this date that is honoured as his feast day each year.
